

ASSOCIATE COMMUNITY MANAGER

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Associate Community Manager is non-exempt, salaried position responsible for supporting the day-to-day operations for a portfolio of community associations. The Associate Community Manager (ACM) is the first line of service for every homeowner in the community associations they support. The ACM must be aware of and able to speak authoritatively on community tasks and projects, and is responsible for homeowner relations.

This is a remote position based in the Tri-Cities, Washington area. The Associate Community Manager will work from home while regularly traveling to assigned communities throughout the region. The position offers scheduling flexibility, with responsibility for meeting deadlines, maintaining strong homeowner and board relationships, and supporting client retention.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Associate Community Manager is a liaison to the board of directors for the general administration of the associations they manage. Based upon the specificity in each association's contract, the Associate Manager may be responsible for some or all the following functions:

- Provide direction and oversight of day-to-day and long-term operations of the association.
- Direct and participate in the preparation of association procedures designed to implement board adopted policies.
- Develop and maintain strong working relationships with key developers and builders throughout the Tri-Cities area, serving as a responsive liaison and supporting effective communication, issue resolution, and community transitions.
- Assist with board recruitment, training and development
- Review studies, reports and correspondence related to the operation of the association.
- Achieve the goals and objectives of the association as set forth in the governing documents.
- Ensure that the policies, resolutions and other acts of the board are carried out.
- Prepare, implement and oversee the association's annual budget.
- Keep the board regularly informed
- Source bids for service
- Secure vendors and manage RFP process for association repairs and projects.
- Build and maintain positive homeowner relationships through proactive communication, timely follow-up, issue resolution, and regular community engagement.
- Facilitate the architectural and design review and approval process

- Conduct all scheduled community drive-through compliance inspections; identify and document potential violations; maintain accurate inspection records; and coordinate notices and follow-up in accordance with each association's governing documents and enforcement procedures.
- Serve as a responsive, approachable point of contact for homeowners and provide clear, timely updates through resolution.
- Responsible for meeting planning and meeting attendance

REQUIREMENTS

The Associate Community Manager should possess solid business experience with a general knowledge of organizational techniques and the ability to coordinate a wide variety of activities. Should have experience in the HOA industry or comparable experience in a fast paced, multi-priority work environment. Manager must be able to juggle priorities, be responsive and have strong computer, communication and customer service skills.

Candidates must reside in or near the Tri-Cities, Washington area and have reliable transportation for frequent travel among assigned communities. A valid driver's license and proof of insurance are required. Because this is a remote position, the Associate Community Manager must maintain a dependable high-speed internet connection and a suitable home workspace for phone and computer access.

The Associate Manager must be available to work occasional nights and weekends.
